

Republic of Zambia
Ministry of Transport and Communications
Zambia Meteorological Department

Seven days Weather Forecast

2nd – 8th September, 2017

GENERAL SITUATION

On 2nd September, 2017: Moderate air flow from the South East will be affecting Zambia. The period from 3rd to 5th September 2017: Moderate to strong and relatively moist airflow from the southeast will be affecting Zambia resulting into windy and a slight drop in day time temperature. Relatively warm air flow from the East will be affecting most parts in Zambia resulting into pickup in temperatures.

Forecast for 2nd September, 2017

All Areas: Mainly sunny, windy, hazy and mild to warm becoming hot in the afternoon.

Forecast Period 3rd to 5th September, 2017

Southern, Lusaka, Central, Eastern and Muchinga Provinces: Few clouds, windy and mild become partly cloudy by late morning, warm to hot in the afternoon.

The Rest: Sunny, windy, hazy and mild becoming warm to hot in the afternoon.

The nights will be mainly clear and mild to cool.

Forecast for the Period 6th to 8th September, 2017

All areas: Mainly sunny, hazy, windy at times and mild to warm becoming hot in the afternoon

The nights will be mainly clear and warm to mild.