

ZAMBIA LUNCHTIME WEATHER REPORT: TUESDAY (03/02/2026)

FORECAST FOR THE AFTERNOON AND EVENING: TUESDAY (03/02/2026)

Northwestern, Southern, Western, Copperbelt, Luapula, Muchinga and Northern Provinces including the northern parts of Eastern, Central and the western parts of Lusaka Provinces:

Mainly cloudy and warm to hot with isolated rain and thunderstorms. Maximum temperature will range between 23°C and 32°C. The evening will be mainly cloudy and mild with rain and occasional thunder.

Southern parts of Eastern, Central and the eastern parts of Lusaka Provinces:

Partly cloudy and warm to hot with a chance of isolated showers and occasional thunder. Maximum temperature will range between 25°C and 34°C. The evening will continue to be partly cloudy, slightly windy with a chance of isolated rain and occasional thunder.

HIGHEST TEMPERATURE RECORDED YESTERDAY: MONDAY (02/02/2026)

Mfuwe and Mongu 34°C, Sesheke 33°C, Livingstone 32°C, Lundazi 31°C, Kalabo 30°C, Zambezi 29°C, Kafironda, Misamfu, Kabwe Met, Mt Makulu, Senanga, Kafue Polder and Magoye 28°C.

Produced by the Zambia Meteorological Department, Ministry of Green Economy and Environment.